Palift is one of the most useful and cost effective ways to enhance safety and productivity when workers are manually loading or unloading boxes, bags or almost any kind of product. Palift is sold around the world and was the pioneer in pallet levelling equipment.

Palift increases productivity and improves worker safety by eliminating the need for bending and stretching when loading or unloading pallets. It is typically used in production areas, at the end of conveyors, in warehouses or anywhere that pallets are being broken down or built up.
